

I am exceptionally pleased. It was a great investment in my business. Lynn Burkholder

The certification program truly opened my mind to different ideas on how to make a living without doing the 9-5 job. Valerie encourages participants to listen to our inner voice and have the courage to follow our hearts. I can't help but share these ideas with others. I love the spark in people's eyes when they talk about what makes them happy. The certification course has also laid a solid foundation and tools for me to start my own business. I'm on my way to achieving my career dreams. Larie Trenkelbach

I honestly didn't expect so much personal support. The materials I received were top-notch and packed with valuable information. It was a wonderful thing to watch as we students bloomed and grew in confidence under Valerie's warm and encouraging tutelage. An awesome program. A smorgasbord of ideas, info and strategy designed to give us the tools we need. An opportunity of a lifetime to do those things that bring meaning and integrity into your life. Dar Arechederra

I was involved in an awesome certification program that teaches us how to help people work at what they enjoy and make money! I have talked about this program to my family and friends and they are blown away at the support and resources available.

Valerie, you are outstanding. You provide a WEALTH of information--I still need lots of time to digest it all! I like how you structured the program, starting with the basics of your process, then diving into marketing, then going to the case studies. This certification has exceeded my expectations. Diane Kobryniewicz

Valerie delivered above and beyond my expectations. I walked away with a great deal of insight, knowledge, and skills and by the time the course ended I had my first paying client. She worked very hard to not only teach us how to become Creative Career Consultants, but to provide opportunities for us to gain real clients as well. Ken Robert

[This] certification program gives you all the information, materials, support and opportunity you could ever need or want to become a first rate Creative Career Consultant. It teaches you how to help others to discover many ways to work at what they love, as well as how to find specific resources needed to make the transition from a salaried position to an entrepreneur with multiple income streams.
